STRUCTURES

Sole trader / individual business: Simple trading and early-stage service income.
Warning: Personal liability and tax treatment vary by jurisdiction.
Limited company: Separate legal personality, contracts, payroll and retained profits.
Warning: Not automatically more tax efficient.
Holding company: Own operating subsidiaries or long-term investments separately.
Warning: Professional legal and tax design is essential.
Property company / SPV: Hold a defined property or project.
Warning: Financing, tax and extraction costs can outweigh benefits.
Trust: Hold assets under legal duties for beneficiaries in jurisdictions that recognise trusts.
Warning: Trusts are jurisdiction-specific, costly and heavily reportable; they are not secrecy devices.
Foundation: Pursue charitable or family-governance purposes under relevant law.
Warning: Not a universal substitute for a trust or company.
Pension / retirement wrapper: Long-term retirement saving with jurisdiction-specific tax treatment.
Warning: Access restrictions, fees and future tax rules matter.
Family investment company: Pool and govern family investments through corporate ownership.
Warning: Requires specialist advice; gifts, control and tax consequences must be modelled.
